- (7) For the employees with significant or exceptional contributions, with approval from the Chairman, the unvested RSAs may be exempted from the restrictions set forth in Items 1 to 6 of this Subparagraph, and such employees' rights in unvested RSAs may be extended up to the final vesting date as stipulated in Article II, Paragraph (III) herein. In addition, such RSAs will not be restricted by the proportional vesting schedule stipulated in Article II, Paragraph (III) herein. The aforementioned matters approved by the Chairman in this Paragraph 7 shall be reported to the Board of Directors afterwards.

III. Eligibility for employees, distribution review and approval procedures

- (I) Full-time employees of the Company or its domestic or foreign subsidiaries who are employed as of the date that the RSAs are granted and who hold specific positions or have made special contributions are eligible to be granted the RSAs. The definition and determination of a subsidiary shall be in accordance with the standards set forth in Articles 369-2, Paragraph 2 of 369-3, 369-9, and 369-11 of the Company Act.
- (II) The eligible employees are limited to those who are:

 - 2. critical to the Company's business operation; or
 - 3. newly hired key employees.
- (III) The Chairman shall nominate and submit to the Board of Directors of the Company for approval the employees who are entitled to RSAs and the number of the RSAs to be granted to him/her based on his/her seniority, job grade, performance, over-all contribution, or special achievement, etc.
 - (1) For employees who hold positions as managerial officers of the Company or directors of the Company, the distribution shall first be approved by the Remuneration Committee of the Company before being submitted to the Company's Board of Directors for approval;
 - (2) For employees who do not hold positions as managerial officers of the Company, the distribution shall first be approved by the Audit Committee of the Company before being submitted to the Company's Board of Directors for approval.
- (IV) Individuals who hold more than 10% of the Company's issued common shares are not eligible.
- (V) Based on Paragraph 1 of Article 56-1 of the Offering and Issuance Regulations, the cumulative number of shares that any single employee can subscribe to through the employee stock options (the exercise price of which is less than the closing price of the underlying shares on the issuance date) and RSAs shall not exceed 0.3% of the total issued shares of the Company; and adding the cumulative number of shares that can be subscribed to through employee stock options granted to a single employee under Article 56, paragraph 1 of the Offering and Issuance Regulations (the exercise price of which is not less than the closing price of the underlying shares on the issuance date), the total shall not exceed 1% of the total issued shares of the Company. However, with special approval from the central competent authority of the relevant industry, the cumulative number of shares that any single employee can subscribe to through the employee stock options and RSAs may be exempted from the aforementioned restrictions.

IV. The rationale for the current issuance of RSAs:

In order to attract and retain talents for the Company, motivate employees, encourage employees' long-term holding of the Company's stock and align their rewards with the Company's performance.

V. Potential expenses and dilution of the Company's earnings per share:

Based on the issuance of RSAs not exceeding 6,000,000 common shares and the average closing price at NT$ 102.2 per share of the 30 business days prior to April 14, 2025, the total expenses are preliminarily estimated at approximately NT$ 613,200,000. If the issuance occurs by the end of June 2025, the total expenses from 2025 to 2029 are projected to be approximately NT$ 159,687,500, NT$ 242,725,000, NT$ 127,750,000, NT$ 63,875,000 and NT$ 19,162,500 respectively. Based on the issuance of RSAs not exceeding 6,000,000 common shares, the estimated impact on diluted earnings per share from 2025 to 2029 would be approximately NT$ 0.14, NT$ 0.22, NT$ 0.11, NT$ 0.06, and NT$ 0.02, respectively. The potential dilution of the Company's EPS is minimal; therefore, there is no material impact on shareholders' interest.

VI. Restrictions imposed on the employees' rights in the RSAs before the vesting conditions are fulfilled

The relevant restrictions and any other matters not set forth herein shall be handled in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations and the RSAs rules established by the Company.
